Re: 11-OIA-0057

Dear Mr. Smathers:

This is a revised final response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), Office of Intelligence and Analysis (I&A), dated 30 September, 2011, notifying you that your request has been transferred to the FBI. You are seeking the following documents:

“Copies of all regular reports between 1/1/2011 and 9/30/2011, made by the person responsible for the DHS priority “threat of radicalization and extremism. The reports may be for their direct supervisor, a board, Congress, Committees, etc.”

A search of Offices of I&A for documents responsive to your request produced a total of 80 pages. Of those pages, I have determined that 80 pages were a joint effort by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Department of Homeland Security. Therefore, as noted in a letter to you dated November 30, 2011, those pages were sent to the FBI for consultation as to the release of the responsive joint documents. In response to revised referral guidelines, the 62 pages now have been turned over to the FBI for direct response to you.

Please direct further inquiries concerning this matter to Mr. David Sobonya, FBI/PA Public Information Officer, (540) 868-4593 or email David.Sobonya@ic.fbi.gov.

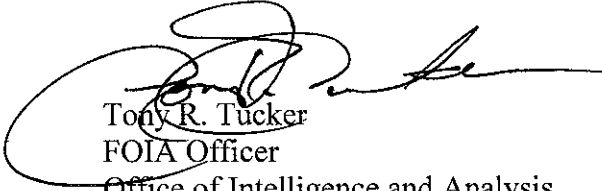

A search of Intelligence and Analysis for documents responsive to your request produced a total of (18) pages. Of those pages, I have determined that (18) pages of the records are partially released, pursuant to Title 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(1)(A), and (b)(7)E).

FOIA Exemption 1 provides that an agency may exempt from disclosure matters that are (A) specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive Order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and (B) are in fact properly classified pursuant to such Executive Order.

Exemption 7(E) protects records compiled for law enforcement purposes, the release of which would disclose techniques and/or procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law. I determined that disclosure of law enforcement system information that could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law. Additionally, the techniques and procedures at issue are not well known to the public.

If you need to contact our office again about this matter, please refer to 11-OIA-0057. This office can be reached at 202-447-4190.

Sincerely,

Tony R. Tucker
